

Orchestra of NEW SPAIN

Hear what others have to say...

"Not only was the music superb, but the instruction was very informative. The students particularly enjoyed hearing the performers discuss and demonstrate their instruments. ... Hearing music performed in Spanish was an affirmation of cultural identities and work done in the classroom. I wish all students in the Dallas Independent School [District] could have this opportunity to hear the Orchestra of New Spain."

Vivian Taylor, Principal, Irma Rangel Young Women's Leadership School

"The way in which they integrate the music, in Spanish, and its social, cultural, and musical context, allowing the children and the audience in general to understand the importance of this cultural patrimony to them, is a most welcome and healthy application of arts in the community."

Rev. David L. Colella, Pastor, Santa Clara Catholic Church & School

"The concert venues are intimate settings that enhance the experience of music. The refreshing and delightful performances leave you feeling uplifted and ready for a new day. The gestalt is an outcome that never disappoints."
