Cervantes & Shakespeare 1616 - 2016

Dallas Institute for the Humanities

2719 Routh St. Dallas TX 75201

Join us at the The Dallas Institute to celebrate in an event to commemorate 400 years since the death of the two great bards—Cervantes & Shakespeare—with readings enacted by Shakespeare Dallas, and music of the time performed by members of the Orchestra of New Spain. And the setting couldn't be better, the opening of Cour Regard, the new addition to the campus of the Institute, evocative of a Golden Age Elizabethan or Spanish theater! This special event will include wine reception and tapas, just like our Home & Garden events! Seating limited, reserve your place now!

Tickets: $35 Event Included in All Season Subscriptions

Home of Barbara & Don Daseke

One of the most interesting of Dallas' unique non-traditional homes, the splendid teak residence of Barbara & Don Daseke is an example of natural materials used to create a green home as art gallery. You will see nothing like it anywhere. It's fine acoustics will showcase Quartet Gallant, in a program of Spanish favorites including Boccherini, Albeniz, Chapí.....
